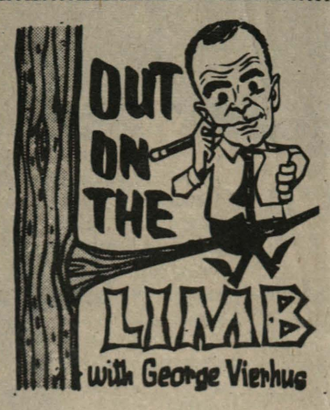
Vol. 79 No. 46 Wednesday, November 17, 1971 10¢

378-9136 35 Dillon Avenue, Campbell, California



AS WE REPORTED BEfore we left on our vacation, we voted absentee in the West Valley College trustee election.

Thereupon Ben Gould was assured of two votes from our household almost two weeks before most of you had a chance to cast your ballots.

For the record that was one of the few times that we had ever voted in that manner. As far as we can recall off the top of our head, we have voted in every election for which we have been eligible.

And that is a longer period of time than we care to specify.

Or you might say it in another way.

We have not been asked to show our I.D. card for a long, long time.

BUT THAT IS NOT WHAT we wanted to talk to you about.

It was sad that only 5.7% of the voters turned out for the election. Ben topped the field of 16 candidates, as you know, with a total of 2156 votes, which was 556 more votes than Ernest J. Paramo, who came in second, received.

By the way the tabulation showed that there were 50 absentee ballots cast of which Gould picked up 17.

There were 76 precincts set up for the sprawling junior college district, which includes Santa Clara and Los Gatos-Saratoga high school district as well as Campbell.

Our office has the complete tabulation of the vote on file.

A number of you have expressed interest as to what happened in some of the precincts, especially in the Campbell area. So we have spent a little time perusing the tabulation.

-0-

FOR EXAMPLE, WHAT was the score at Hamilton School?

There were 153 voters tallied in that precinct. Ben received 86 of them. His closest competitor (Paramo) got 21. Anyway that works out at something like 56% of all the votes cast in that spot.

In Hazelwood, there were 172 votes and Gould picked up 79, about 46% of the total. At Campbell Elementary, there were 197 votes and Ben picked up 114 of 'em, approximately 57%.

At San Tomas, there were 107 votes total and Ben got 41, about 38%. At Rosemary, there were 138 votes cast. Ben received 83 of them or more than 60%.

In Dover, however, Ben came in second to Paramo. There were 163 votes in that precinct and Paramo received 61 while Gould picked up 49.

By the way, the Homer Hydes', the Bill Smeeds' and the George Vierhus' vote at Dover.

But we all are sort of used to the way Dover goes in an election.

You can almost always count on it.

One time (we think) we were on the winning side in our own precinct.

-0-

GOULD, OF COURSE, carried other precincts than just those within the Campbell sphere.

In fact, he was top man in 43 of the 76 with Paramo heading the field in 27 and Gary W. De Rosa winning four.

For example, in the Moreland area Gould did well.

He collected 30 out of 79 at Bucknall; 39 out of 73 at Latimer; 48 out of 83 at Castro; and 55 out of 109 at Country Lane to name just a few.

Ben also carried the Daves Ave. School in Monte Sereno with 43 out of 161 and in a number of Los Gatos precincts he was top man. At the Saratoga library precinct Ben got

CEREMONY AT CLOCK TOWER

Time capsule awaits 2071

"From citizens of Campbell of 1971 A.D. to the citizens of 2071 A.D."

That is the inscription on the concrete slab that seals the time capsule at the base of the clock tower at the city hall.

In a brief ceremony last Friday, the copper box built by George Rodriguez of County Sheet Metal and filled with a collection of material of present day Campbell by Mrs. Jeanette Watson, was lowered into place.

Participating in the ceremony were Norm Paul, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Father Leonard W. Bose, pastor of St. Lucy's; and Mayor Ralph Doetsch.

Before the box was lowered, Mrs. Watson described its contents. It contains photos of homes and key points of interest of the community, as well as issues of The Campbell Press and material from the schools and college. In addition, there are tape recordings of interviews with various local citizens which were encased in tin to keep them from being de-magnitized.

Present at the ceremony were a number of school children. Mrs. Watson emphasized the contribution made by the youngsters. She noted that at the city hall dedication, Hilton Hoyt, a Dover sixth-grader had presented to Mayor Doetsch a replica of the time capsule.

A large portion of the funds raised to build the clock tower came from the kiddies' matinees.

SERIES STARTS NOV. 23

General plan hearings to move about in city

Campbell Planning Commission on Tuesday, Nov. 23 will begin a "move-to-the-people" in a series of study sessions relating to the general plan of the city, it was announced Monday night at the Commission meeting.

The first session will deal with the downtown area and will be held in the council chambers at the city hall. But all the other hearings will be scheduled in the areas that will be under discussion.

The purpose of the move-to-the-people project will be to discover if the general plan, adopted in 1961 and upgraded in 1968-69 through the federally supported 701 program, is serving its purpose as far as the citizens in the specific areas are concerned.

Residents in the areas where the study sessions will be held will be invited to respond. Their response will have a great bearing on whether the general plan needs to be modified the commissioners point out.

The city has been divided into definite geographical areas for the hearings, but the boundaries will not necessarily follow the specific area lines, Art Kee, planning director, explains.

The second hearing will be for the Rincon Park area and the session has been tentatively scheduled for Campbell Elementary School, adjoining the park.

A hearing is also planned for Dover School and residents east of the freeway will participate. A fourth meeting has been set for Rosemary School and will be for that particular area.

At Monday night's meeting, the Commission continued for (to Dec. 20) 30 days the request for a use permit by J. P. Clark and Fred ReHorn to allow an entertainment center at 1065 Florence Way.

The continuance was suggested so as to allow time for the applicants to work out any parking problem that might exist and to confer with Jack Craig, owner of industrial property in the area, who filed a protest against the proposed use.

On Monday night, for the second time, the Commission unanimously rejected the request of Patricia Fletscher to allow a basement storage area at 1610 La Pradera. The mat-

COUNCIL GETS FINAL CHANGE ORDER

City hall cost totals $774,266

When the final change order in the construction of the city hall is adopted next Monday, Nov. 22, by the City Council, the actual contract cost of the structure will be $774,266.39, according to Wally Byron, city building official.

In a memo to City Manager Bob Stephens for an agenda item for Monday's Council meeting, Byron has submitted "Change Order No. 7", which will deduct $7,432.55 from the contract price of $779,000 of Frazier Construction Co.

Byron notes that Monday's change order is the final one and 10 items appear on it, with eight of them "adding" and two of them "deducting".

One deduction is for $8,900 Byron points out. He explains that this item is for 89 scratched window panes for which the insurance carrier has made a settlement, if the glass is not changed. City officials have indicated that the scratches are of such a minor nature, that it would serve no useful purpose to replace them.

Former City Attorney Joe Bonacina, who served the city for 18 years has been named "City Attorney Emeritus" by official City Council action, will fill in next Monday for City Attorney Bob Dempster who will be out of town.

Two items on the agenda on which Bonacina will report concern the extension of salary for Police Chief John Morgan and the current status of the sign hassle with Plog Sheet Metal on Gilman Ave.

Bill Wren, public works director, is asking approval of the City Council for the stop signs that will be placed on the new streets in the Hamilton Downs development on the former Gomes Ranch between Latimer and Hamilton.

Wren will also present to the Council a novel proposal that would allow a "trade" in funds between the City of Gilroy and the City of Campbell. Under the proposal, Gilroy would receive some of Campbell's gas tax money for "topics" funds which are earmarked for signals and railroad crossing improvements.

Wren will also seek Council approval of the contract for the new traffic signalization project at Hamilton and Bascom. Bids for the job are scheduled to be opened on Thursday. Council approval of a new pickup and roller for the public works department is also expected Monday.

SCHOOL CHILDREN CONTRIBUTE TO CIVIC PROJECT.....

CAMPBELL UNION (Elementary) SCHOOL DISTRICT

Trustees to ponder tax hike this Thursday

"How much, when and for how long" will be some of the complex questions on the proposed tax rate election that will face the board of trustees of the Campbell Union (elementary) District this Thursday, November 18.

The board will meet at the administration office at 7 p.m.

Complicating the board's decision is that teachers' groups and the administrators association feel that the district tax rate should be increased by 70-95 cents instead of the 40-45 cent hike recommended by the tax election committee.

STUDY SESSION

The teachers and administrators' attitude was made known at the public study session on the proposed tax election held last Thursday at Castlemont School.

In a report at the hearing by Bob Renfer, chairman of the tax election committee, it was recommended that a 40-45 cent increase in the present $2.55 tax rate be asked at a special election on Feb. 29, 1972.

The $2.55 rate will revert to $1.80 on June 30, 1972, unless the electorate by ballot before that date either approves a continuance of the present rate or an increase to it.

TEACHERS OPPOSE

Spokesmen for the educator groups at the hearing last Thursday argued that a 40-45 cent increase will not provide an adequate educational program in the district.

Rolf Monroe, representing the Campbell Elementary Teachers Association (CETA), claimed that a tax hike of 80-95 cents for three years was necessary to meet the basic educational needs in the district.

He maintained that the 40-45 cent jump for three years would only guarantee a less than adequate educational program.

Gordon Martin, representing the West Valley Federation of Teachers (WVFT), submitted that the $2.95 rate as recommended by the committee would permit no new programs, no restoration of school supplies and equipment budget and no upgrading of the economic position of the district's employees.

Martin suggested that the tax hike be 95-cents and that the voters be asked to approve a $3.50 rate.

Don Bergstrom, principal of Blackford, representing the administrators association, indicated that the principals felt that the 40-45 cent increase was not enough. The principals, he added, would like to see the educational program in the district improved.

Speaking for the classified employees association (CSEA), Mrs. Peggy Pack, secretary, said that the executive board had recommended that a tax increase be not less than 45-cents but she also added that the CSEA would support whatever action the trustees would take on the matter.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Renfer, in making his report, explained that the committee had been appointed in August and had met six times as a whole; had examined much data and had studied all facets of the situation. He said that every PTA and home and school club in the district had been contacted.

He said that the 11-member committee was comprised of three representatives of the public (Renfer, John Merriell and Buck Austin) with the other members representing the school district.

The other members were Dr. Richard MacQuiddy, Dr. Robert King (trustees); Jim D'Avis (acting superintendent); C. E. Bradley (district business manager); Dave MacLeod (Castlemont principal); Melva Miller (classified employees); and Herb Wadley and Rolf Monroe (teachers).

Renfer pointed out that state revenue had declined in the district and that the decline was expected to reach $150,000 in the 1972 - 73 school year. He said that smaller increases in assessed valuation were expected in the future as compared to the in-

"Forces of change"

"Can the City of Campbell survive the forces of change?"

That is the topic that City Manager Bob Stephens will speak on at the monthly Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting this Thursday (Nov. 18) at The Royal Fork.

We have not checked with the city manager as to how he plans to develop his subject. But the title of his talk suggests to us that there have been numerous "forces of change" in the past decade in this community.

And our community is surviving.

We submit, for example, that there has been a radical change in our thinking as far as "what is best for this community".

And we have editorials to prove it.

To illustrate what we mean we must conjecture a bit. We submit that often hindsight will overshadow an issue to such an extent that it makes comparisons of current attitudes with those of the past quite unfair.

As a case in point, we maintain that 10 years ago had a developer applied for a nine-story office building at Hamilton and Llewellyn, the chances are that the city administration, through the planning commission and the city council, would have welcomed it.

True, the city administration might have suggested, ten years ago, ways to improve the plans for the structure to make it more attractive and compatible to the surroundings just as was the case this year. However, we feel a decade ago there was a different attitude prevailing.

It could have been argued in 1961, and with considerable merit, that such a retail-commercial-apartment complex would be an asset to the city and would give the tax base a healthy boost.

We are not saying, of course, that no longer is it necessary to "boost the tax base".

We maintain, however, that the City of Campbell today can afford to be a little more "choosey" because of the "forces of change" that have taken place in the community in the past 10 years.

In 1961, as you well know, there was no development at Bascom and Campbell avenues where the PruneYard and "The Towers" are now located.

There was an orchard still existing on the 34 acres at that time and even the most visionary individual probably would not have been able to have foreseen what has taken place at that location in the past two or three years.

In 1961, there was no Kirkwood Plaza or many of the other shopping centers that exist in the community today.

And the population had just passed 10,000. Today it is 25,000.

The industrial section of the city was virtually nonexistent in 1961.

Our point is simply that the concepts for development that existed in this community in 1961 are not the same as exist today.

We recognize that there have been many mistakes made in the past 10 years as far as proper planning is concerned.

But no one had a crystal ball to use and no one "knew" what was going to really happen in 10 years.

The theme of the editorials that appeared in The Press a decade ago and the editorials that appear today in this paper with respect to prospective developments in this community also reflect a change.

We recognize this change, although we admit that some of the changes have been so gradual that we hardly knew it.

What we are saying is that this community has become stabilized to a great extent. Care must be taken by the city officials to see that this stability is not lost.

We concede that some will argue that it is unfair to a property owner to force him to develop his property in a manner that will give a less return than if he developed it in another way.

It will be argued, for example, that Joe Doakes down the street was able to get a much better deal and, by gum, the city is showing discrimination in not allowing "John Doe" to do the same as "Joe Doakes" did.

But we think city officials, in attempting to guide the developments into the proper channels, must take into consideration that there is much more at stake than just the welfare of an individual property owner.

49 out of 131.

We concede that these tabulations are sort of old hat at this stage of the game.

But some of you seemed interested.

We hope we named your precinct.

For the record, by the way, the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould officially takes office tomorrow (Nov. 18).

Based on Gould's vote in the election, (2156) someone used his percentage and submitted that it meant he would have received 40,000 votes, if all voted who were eligible.

We didn't bother to argue.

We know that 94% of the people in the district who were eligible to vote didn't bother to go to the polls.

We think that's a pretty awful record.

-0-

SPEAKING OF TABULATIONS---The tax bills that recently made their appearance are sort of worthy of perusing in detail.

Provided, of course, you have a strong stomach and can keep from shaking long enough to read the figures.

Obviously, tax bills vary, depending on the areas and special districts and stuff like that.

On our bill, for example, we note that the only tax rate that was down from the previous year was the city's.

The breakdown shows that "education", "county" and "districts" are up over last year.

According to the way we figure percentages, "education" accounted for 56% of our tax bill. The "county" takes 22% and "districts" get 6% and the "city" ends up with about 14%.

(That doesn't quite add up to 100%. But it is close enough to get the idea.)

-0-

A LEAFLET WAS ENclosed with the tax bill, explaining that, although the county was collecting the whole bit, only 22% of each dollar collected was retained by that entity.

It was also stated that a county property tax of 18.6 cents was necessary this year to finance a budget that contained "massive demands in social services."

It was noted that the budget contained unprecedented reductions in many major departments, but these were erased by the other fiscal demands.

A table showed that 58% of the county budget goes for "public assistance" and 38.5% of "public assistance" is financed by the property tax rate.

We concede that a drop of two cents in the tax rate for the City of Campbell is really no big deal.

But in face of what the rest of the tax picture is, there is a nice sound to ANY drop.

We were beginning to think there was no way but up.

-0-

BEING GONE FOR three weeks had some advantages.

We missed a number of sticky activities.

Including, of course, those lengthy sessions of the Grand Jury involving that unfortunate and tragic incident in San Jose.

We also missed the grand opening celebration of the PruneYard where the tally showed that 75,000 people were on hand during the big event.

We also missed that Planning Commission session over the Amato property rezoning when more than 100 interested people were in attendance at the hearing.

But the Amato property zoning issue is still around and will be for quite a spell.

At the hearing, the six commissioners who were present split right down the middle, three to three.

However, the commission voted unanimously to continue the hearing until Dec. 6 when it was hoped that all commissioners will be on hand, so the first round can come to a close.

Most of us have been aware for a long time that the development of the Amato property is sort of a key issue.

Unfortunately, or fortunately as the case may be, it is a choice bit of real estate and it has been drooled over by many for a long time.

There are not many areas left in town that lend themselves so well to the varied developments that are actually possible to put on that piece of property, including, of course, single-family dwellings

That was foreseen when the general plan was adopted.

Has the picture changed radically since then?

ter had been referred back to the Commission by the City Council.

The Commission approved the California Savings and Loan request for a move-in triplex at 910 Michael Dr. and approved the request of William Hedley, local architect, on behalf of Stan Becker of the Wrinkled Prune Annex to allow a sporting goods warehouse storage in the former cannery warehouse.

Approved also was the use permit to allow a dance studio at 661 McGlincey Lane as requested by Jean Crosley after considerable discussion over the hours that the studio will be operating. The studio is located in a M-1-S zone.

Shell Oil was granted approval to install canopies at an existing service station at 1530 W. Campbell Ave.

Approval was also given Alan Sims to convert an existing residential building of English design at 866 E. Campbell Ave. into an English pub. The property is located across from the PruneYard. Sims, in a letter to the Commission, claimed that the exterior of the building lends itself to a pub design and that the interior lay-out would also be "perfect".

Plans were approved for a trailer sales lot at 2605 Winchester as submitted by Harvey H. Green and a rear yard setback variance was given Bill Paul of Wheel Away Cycle Center at 402 E. Hamilton to allow an addition to the present operation.

The Commission also approved the prezoning of R-M as recommended for parcels on Shelley Ave. now in the process of being annexed.

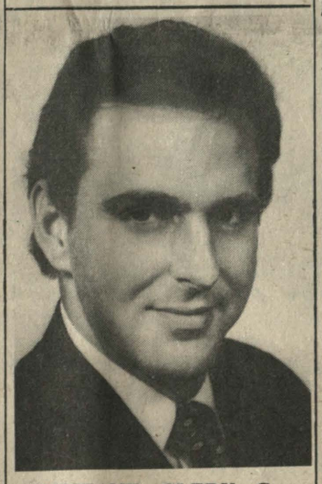
540-640 W. Latimer is also on the agenda. Eichler has asked that the zone on the property be changed from P-D (planned development) to R-3-S (multiples) which was the original zoning. Eichler maintains that the building situation has changed and that the town-house complexes that had been planned for the area are no longer practical.

Because the city has not yet received any federal money to assist in the development of Rincon Park, the Council next Monday is again expected to defer action on the agreement with the landscape architect for Rincon Park which is expected to cost about $20,000. Federal funds are expected to pick up half the tab.

COORDINATOR --- Mrs. Madelyn Sanchez Vassigh, 29, Mexican-American vocational counselor, has been appointed as the county's first minority coordinator by Harold Rosen, personnel director. Her job will be to look for areas in county government where the public is not being adequately served because of a lack of Spanish-speaking employees, Rosen said.

She is a native of Oakland and a graduate of San Jose and Eastside Schools.



ASSISTANT CLERK---Gary Voecks, 34, a title officer for six years with the County Counsel's office, has been appointed assistant clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Post office issues two special Christmas stamps

Two special U. S. postage stamps keyed to Christmas 1971 are now on sale at the Campbell Post Office, and may be purchased at all post offices, according to William H. Jennings, postmaster.

Jennings also appeals to the public to buy stamps and complete the Christmas mailings early.

The postmaster also emphasized the importance of including zip codes on all cards, letters and packages.

The new 8-cent Christmas stamp features a nativity scene and a partridge in a pear tree.

The initial printing of the nativity stamp is one-billion, 200 million, Jennings added.

The partridge stamp's first press run totalled 800 million. Both stamps are subject to additional print orders in response to public requirements.

The initial value of the two Christmas issues is $160 million. The stamps are in separate sheets, 50 to a sheet.

They are approximately one inch wide and 1½ inches high. Both are multi-colored, in keeping with the spirit of the holiday season.

Key dates mentioned for local mailers to use as guidelines are as follows: December 1, distant packages;

December 10, local packages and distant cards; and prior to December 15, all local cards.

Jennings said that a total Christmas mail-volume of 10 billion pieces is expected this year, of which nearly two billion pieces will be handled in the western states.

"We need everybody's help to deal with this avalanche and deliver Christmas on time," he pointed out.

THE PHONE BOOTH

You can save money by choosing how and when you call long distance.

I'd like to remind you that it's possible to save quite a bit of money on many long distance phone calls you make within California. Just keep these things in mind.

First, you can save at least 20% on a three-minute station-to-station long distance call by dialing direct instead of placing it through the Operator.

Second, long distance station-to-station rates vary depending on when you call. The rates go down after 6 p.m. every night and on the weekends.

6 P.M.

Here's an even better bargain. Between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. every night you can now dial direct (without operator assistance) to anywhere in California for 49 cents or less, plus tax, for the first three minutes. This 49 cent station-to-station rate also applies from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. every Sunday and on Washington's Birthday, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day, too.

11 P.M.

8 A.M.

When you're going out for the evening, here are a few suggestions that may help both you and the babysitter relax. Write down the names of the places you're going, the phone numbers, and the approximate time you'll be at each place. Have emergency numbers, including the family doctor's, written down also. Then—having taken these precautions, a night out can be more pleasurable.

CHRISTMAS CLASS

"Preparing for a Meaningful Christmas" is the title of a class offered by Sue Cole on three Tuesday evenings beginning November 23 at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Saratoga. The 8 to 10 p.m. class is open to the public. A nominal fee is charged. For more information, call the parish office, 867-3493.

UNDER CONSTRUCTION--- Sawing, digging, and hammering are the busy sounds that form background music for West Valley College students as they stroll between classes on the Saratoga campus. The future West Valley library, shown in the photo, was started in July and will cost over a million dollars.

"A Man Who Came to Dinner", this year's senior play, opens Thursday night, Nov. 18.

But if you miss that performance, you can still see it on the 19 and 20. Tickets, $1 and $1.50 reserved, may be purchased at the school's main office.

Janice Eufemi was chosen Homecoming Queen by Del Mar's Varsity Football Team. Debbie Chirco and Delayne Rudy were chosen for princesses.

The Queen and her princesses hold court at the Homecoming game on Thanksgiving Day, when Del Mar takes on the Camden Cougars, in Del Mar's bowl. Tickets for the game are $2, adults; and $1, children under twelve.

The Junior Class Magazine Drive wasn't as successful as hoped. The students sold a net total of $6,150 and the class received $2,300 commission. Unfortunately the class didn't reach its goal of $10,000 net total.

The Student Council is starting a teaching group that is tutoring at Del Mar.

If all goes well, it will go to the neighboring schools: Blackford, Dover, and Monroe Elementary.

The tutors will be students whose skills are in specific subjects. Fifty three students have signed up as tutors.

The group is headed by ASB president, Patty Austin and ASB vice-president, Loren Kroker.

This year they will have princesses from the other classes: freshman, Renee Honda; sophomore, Carol Thompson; junior, Kathy Huddleson.

On Saturday, Nov. 6 there was a spirit competition at Kennedy High School in Fremont. The groups that competed from Campbell were the Flag girls, Song girls, and Varsity and Frosh-Soph cheerleaders. The flag girls brought home a first place trophy for the third straight year. The song girls and varsity cheerleaders both made it into the finals and took fifth place. There was also a competition Saturday, Nov. 13, at Santa Clara University, with the winners performing at half-time of the Santa Clara–Pomona football game.

Also, the Junior-Senior Recreation night is tonight from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Boy's Gym.

Tips on how to prevent Kitchen fires offered

Cooking grease is a major factor in kitchen fires, which cause 40% of all residential fires.

When grease is forgotten or neglected it can overheat, give off vapors, and begin to smoke. What a homeowner does once the grease reaches ignition temperature can make the difference between a bad experience and a tragic major loss.

The Bay Area Council on Fire Safety and the Independent Insurance Agents Association suggests these guidelines for kitchen fire-safety.

1. Never put water on a fire, since it may cause severe splattering, grease burns and spreading of the fire.
2. Control a frying pan fire by turning off the stove, then placing a cover over the pan with a long handled fork to smother the fire.
3. For fires in ovens or broilers, turn off the heat and close the door to smother the flames.
4. Always be sure a fire is out. Call the fire department to check it.
5. Never leave frying pans on the stove unattended.
6. Keep stoves clear of paper napkins, towels, potholders, accumulated grease and all combustible materials.
7. Check cords and electric appliances often, repairing or replacing them when worn.
8. Keep a dry chemical fire extinguisher in the kitchen.

Recent nuptials unite Susan and Allen

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Alan Pontier greeted their guests at a reception in the Odd Fellows Hall, after a double ring ceremony in Saint Martin's Church.

Father William Leninger performed the nuptials. The bride was given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, William J. O'Conner.

Susan Katherine Acker is the daughter of Mrs. Gerald Enerson Acker, 1671 Whitwood Lane, and her late husband. Alan Anthony Pontier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony W. Pontier, San Jose.

The bride was attired in a silk organza gown with chantilly lace and a chapel train. A pearl crown secured her fingertip veil.

Baby white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath made up Susan's bouquet.

Mrs. Jeri Webber, sister of the bride was chosen matron of honor. Mrs. Patricia Murphy, the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Debbie Alves, were bridesmaids.

Marcie Carson, cousin of the bridegroom, served as flower girl dressed in a white gown with orange velvet trim, and carrying a basket of white chrysanthemums.

The other attendants wore orange chiffon gowns, and carried bouquets of autumn-colored chrysanthemums.

Daniel Pontier, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Donald Pontier and David Pontier, brothers of the groom, Stephen Acker, brother of the bride, and Jim Alves.

Employed by Wells Fargo Bank, Susan is a graduate of Prospect High. Her husband is employed by San Jose Blue Print Co.

Fall recipes

'Tis the season to....make meat into a dessert! Ground beef combines with cider, apples, spices, bouillon and dried fruits to make the seasonal mincemeat which stars as a filling in pie, tarts and cookies.

The mincemeat can be made in 2 hours or less with a little team work preparing the four lbs. of apples.

HOMEMADE MINCEMEAT

Two and one-half pounds regular ground beef
Four pounds tart apples, pared, cored and chopped fine
One and three-fourths cups currants
Three and one-third cups raisins
Three and one-third cups packed brown sugar
One quart apple cider (or juice)
One cup meat stock or bouillon
One teaspoon salt
Two teaspoons each: nutmeg and ground cloves
One tablespoon cinnamon
One-third cup lemon juice

Combine first five ingredients in heavy pan (six to eight quart size). Stir in other ingredients except lemon juice. Simmer, uncovered, one hour, stirring frequently to prevent scorching. Add lemon juice and stir to blend. Remove from heat. Mincemeat may be stored in refrigerator for four or five days. For longer storage, freeze it. Makes four quarts....enough for four eight or nine inch pies.

BAZAAR RUSSE---Mrs. Stephan Shinkevich and Mrs. Henry Marr, president of the Sisterhood, examine holiday items which will be on sale at "Bazaar Russe" on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 20 and 21 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Held at St. Nicholas Church, 14220 Elm Ave., Saratoga, the bazaar features Russian crafts and gourmet food like borscht, piroshki and sweet tortes. Ladies of the Sisterhood will dress in costumes for the bazaar. Lunch will be served Sunday only from 1 a.m. to 5 p.m.

NASA official visits school

Students at Bohnett School are expecting a visitor from space.

Or at least, a visitor from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (Ames Laboratory).

William Horbath, a science specialist, will visit the school at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, November 23.

The program, according to Sal Colletto, principal, will be attended by students in grades four, five and six, as well as students from neighboring Cambrian School.

The lecture and demonstration is designed to acquaint the students of the role of air and space in the community and will include a discussion of aeronautics, rocketry, propulsion, satellites, probes, orbits, communications, human factors and man-space flights.

Horbath, who has been with NASA for four years, is a member of the faculty of Oklahoma State University.

Napa Valley winemaking provides big attraction

Among California's many wine producing regions, one of the most interesting and picturesque is the Napa Valley. Located 90 minutes north-east of San Francisco on Highway 29, the area is home to approximately twenty vineyards and wineries, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Wine grapes of many varieties have flourished in the valley since the 1850's when European settlers imported them from the continent. The climate and soil of the Napa region perfectly match (and in some ways surpass) the European wine regions. Many of the original buildings still stand, constructed of native stone, redwood, or brick.

Most wineries offer free guided tours which demonstrate to visitors the various states of winemaking---crushing of grapes, fermentation, storage, and bottling. These tours usually end in the tasting room where visitors may sample some of the specialties of the vintner.

Inglenook, Christian Brothers, Mondavi, and Charles Krug are only a few of the famed winemakers situated in this region.

One tour especially recommended is that of the Christian Brothers in the town of St. Helena. The grand old stone winery, built in 1888, has long been a Napa Valley landmark. Tours conducted daily from 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. include a large tasting room with a high vaulted ceiling and masonry walls complemented by the mahogany paneling of the huge doors.

A room upstairs displays Brother Timothy's vast collection of corkscrews from all over the world.

A trip to Napa Valley, whether for a brief stopover, or an extended visit to the area's many wineries and historical landmarks, is indeed a rewarding experience. Since winemaking is a year-round operation, there are always attractions for the visitor, regardless of the time of year.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

Readers of last week's column never did learn who won the Black Knight tournament. Mechanical problems caused the deletion of the last paragraph. This is also a way to drag a story out for two weeks.

As you may remember when we left our two intrepid darters in last week's episode (Ah! The melodrama unfolds), they each had won one game. It was do or die for both of them.

Eric Branthwaite got away first as Jim Macredes had double trouble. Jim took seven darts to get away with a 72. He then backed it up with a 99. When it got down to the nitty-gritty Eric went bust on 76. Jim shot a 65-out, taking the match and the $200 first place prize.

LADIES' SINGLES

Next Sunday, Nov. 21 will see the Nor-Cal ladies compete for the NCDA trophy at the Halfway Club in San Leandro. While there are several gals teams in San Francisco, the majority of the gals participating are from the South Bay and Oakland areas. Defending champion Bobbie Lindsay of Los Gatos will be unable to defend her title.

TURKEY SHOOTS

All kinds of Turkey Shoots are taking place around the Bay Area. In our immediate area the Lancashire Lad scheduled two, the first one was last Saturday and at this writing I don't know who got the bird. A repeat performance is scheduled for Saturday night.

Up in San Rafael, The Mayflower Inn is having a turkey shoot this Sunday with the following Sunday a Christmas Toy Shoot. First prize is a large stuffed animal. They don't play the standard 301 game. They have little gimicks, like your first dart is a matchbook dart, your second is wooden and the third is standard. Lots of fun.

Testing program used at college

West Valley College's new Center for Supervision and Management Development recently held a testing program, which was used by the Mountain View Fire Department to select three apprentices.

In a day-long testing experience, the 10 applicants not only took the traditional oral and written exams, but were also tested for their ability to solve group problems, influence others and physical skills.

Fire department personnel said traditional testing screened out highly qualified people who did poorly on written tests.

The three men selected, Glynn Morris, John Brown and Vince Guasch, will serve a two-year apprenticeship. West Valley's Management Center is giving the other men counseling to help them determine their career development plans.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

by Ellie Rumbaugh

A miniature golf party and a camp-out were this season's first activities for the Camp Fire girls of District Nine. Mrs. Frank Cook and Mrs. Hamilton Bass planned the activity for girls from first grade through Junior High School.

Many groups participated in the district camp-out at Camp Wastahi near Felton. The groups planned their own activities for the day and met together for games and the evenings activities.

District Nine Camp Fire Girl activities have been well launched for the year. Under the guidence of Mrs. Elbert Twichell, training chairman, over 150 leaders, assistant leaders and sponsors have been trained.

Many schools, especially in the Moreland School District will have new Camp Fire groups.

Those interested in forming a new group may call the Camp Fire office at 249-1300.

JayCees sell living trees as ecology and park project

Campbell JayCees received approval by the Campbell city fathers recently to sell live Christmas trees.

The pilot project, called "The Green Christmas Project" is part of the JayCees plans for developing Rincon Park.

As outlined before the city council by Walt Fontes, project chairman, the live tree project is aimed at encouraging the ecology-minded community to purchase live trees for holiday enjoyment and then donate them to the city for the park.

Arrangements have been made, according to JayCee spokesmen, to have a special selection of trees available at two local nurseries, Cambrian and Cupertino, at a reduced cost for those who redeem the "Green Christmas" coupons which the JayCees are distributing throughout the the community.

The JayCees will pick up the trees from donors to plant in the park on Jan. 2 and 9. However, donors may plant the trees themselves on one of those two dates. The special rate is available to anyone who uses the coupons, regardless of whether or not he donates the tree.

Through the project, the JayCees hope to give the community an interest in the park and in ecology.

Additional information is available at 378-5285 or 287-2442. Any individuals or groups interested in assisting in promoting the project, or in picking up or planting the trees, should contact one of the above numbers.

MORE ABOUT

School board

creases in the past few years.

If the district reverted to the $1.80 rate, Renfer emphasized it was estimated that this would result in $1.5 million loss in income. If the $2.55 rate remained, he added, it was estimated that there would be a shortage of $500,000 in the 1972-73 year and an additional deficit of $272,000 the following year which would mean that drastic cuts would have to be made.

PARENT GROUPS

Renfer also pointed out that it appeared to be the opinion of the parent groups that were contacted that it would be unwise to revert to the $1.80 rate. Most felt that some increase was necessary. He said also that no change in the present property tax financing of schools was expected for immediate future.

The entire board was present at the study session last Thursday and Dr. MacQuiddy, board president, explained that the hearing had been called to provide the public with the opportunity to respond to the recommendations of the committee.

Then acting Superintendent D'Avis reported on the background of the situation. He described some of the improvements that had been made in the district in the financial-administration procedures; reviewed curriculum progress and emphasis and personnel policies.

RESPONSE

Teachers predominated the meeting but a number of parents took the floor during the response period. Those wishing to speak or to ask questions had been invited to submit their names and questions during intermission.

Those speaking or submitting questions included: Roland Boutiette, Lloyd Vickert, Bob Renfer, George Baker, Mike Kennedy, Dr. Frank Volpe, Mrs. Louise Duncan and Bob Lemmerman, parents; Don Samuelson, Bill Scheide, Nancy Dixon and Dave MacLeod, Principal.

DRIVE

Mrs. Frank H. Nichols of Campbell is one of 404 class agents participating in the annual alumnae fund drive of Winthrop College.

The funds are used for scholarships, faculty study grants, and the Distinguished Professor award.

MAKING REPAIRS—Ralph Veit, Mike Kennedy (hidden) and Allan Blaine, members of the Campbell JayCees, make repairs to a sign which the JayCees erected next to San Tomas Expressway near the Highway 17 exit. The original design of the sign suffered some damage, so the JayCees spent a Sunday afternoon on rebuilding.

WELCOME TO CAMPBELL—Campbell JayCees are responsible for this and several other signs which indicate to motorists that they are entering the City of Campbell.

Beetle Bailey—Mort Walker
